

ADMISSIONS

In our admissions and selection procedures, we evaluate candidates based on a combination of their experiences, qualities, academic achievements, and the potential they bring to the learning, practice, and teaching environments. By adopting this comprehensive approach, we ensure that our admissions committee doesn't excessively emphasize any single factor and evaluates the applicant as a complete individual. The application has a non-refundable fee of $100.00 USD.

DEGREE

An applicant to UAG School of Medicine must have the equivalent of 90 undergraduate semester credit hours to be considered for admission. While a bachelor's degree is highly recommended, it is not mandatory. Additionally, all pre-medical requirements must have been fulfilled at an accredited university or college in the United States or Canada.
